Standing in the night there is awareness that as I breath all life knows the breath as I know theirs. With each blade of grass, star, each tree the in breath and out was of union moving and swaying together as we all do....a cosmic symphony. Today in collaboration with a rose bush and the nature spirits that are responsible for that bush I trimmed it back exactly where I was directed to. Another rose bush it was not appropriate for it's life to trim. I am in wonder of the wisdom that comes forth of Souls of a life in every moment. The right orderedness of it is apparent in the simple peace and joy of the communion. This is the holy communion, to live the life from our wisdom thus allowing the interconnectedness of all life's wisdom. There are no words yet I am moved to share. I through out my life have turned to the outside, books, internet, other's truths for answers. And this all serves until it doesn't for it can remind us of who we are and all life truly is. I read over and over slogans and beautiful phrases that really are truth yet only when they are allowed through our own wisdom do we realize them. And when we do there is a great peace that is void of attachment and agendas and what is there is the moment to moment wonder of it all. Thank you Roger Scaglia for the photo. Deb Evans
