In the episode, Larryboy is playing outside when he hears a strange noise. He follows the noise to a group of kids who are playing with a new toy called Ear Wacks. Ear Wacks are small, rubbery balls that are designed to be inserted into the ears. The kids tell Larryboy that Ear Wacks are fun to play with, and they convince him to try them.

Larryboy puts on the Ear Wacks and immediately starts to feel strange. His ears start to itch and burn, and he begins to lose his hearing. The kids laugh at Larryboy, and they tell him that he is a "loser." Larryboy is embarrassed and ashamed, and he runs home to his parents.

Larryboy's parents are worried about him. They ask him what happened, and he tells them about the Ear Wacks. Larryboy's parents tell him that Ear Wacks are dangerous, and they explain that they can cause ear infections and other serious problems.

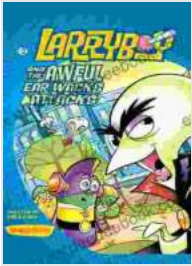

Larryboy is relieved to learn that he is not a loser. He thanks his parents for their help, and he promises never to put anything in his ears again without their permission.

Larryboy and the Awful Ear Wacks Attacks is a fun and educational episode that teaches kids about the importance of listening to their parents and being careful about what they put in their ears. The episode is also a reminder that it is okay to make mistakes, but it is important to learn from them.
