Plot

The story begins in present-day New York City, where Margo is a struggling artist with a passion for history. One day, while exploring an antique shop, she stumbles upon a mysterious amulet that transports her back to the time of the Roman Empire. Initially overwhelmed by her surroundings, Margo quickly adapts and embraces her new life as a Roman citizen. She learns to fight like a gladiator, navigate the treacherous streets of Rome, and even win the favor of the emperor himself.

As Margo's journey continues, she finds herself in ancient Greece, where she witnesses the birth of democracy and the rise of great philosophers. She learns to speak Greek, study philosophy, and even participate in the Olympic Games. From there, she travels to ancient Egypt, where she explores the pyramids, unravels the secrets of hieroglyphics, and becomes a trusted advisor to the pharaoh.

Throughout her travels, Margo encounters a diverse cast of characters, both real and imagined. She befriends a Roman general, falls in love with a Greek poet, and even meets Julius Caesar. She faces countless challenges along the way, but her determination and resourcefulness always see her through.
